

Sergio Bosi

www.sergiobosi.it

Born in a family of musicians, he graduated at the age of 16 years at the Conservatory "G. Rossini" in Pesaro with the maximum of votes, distinctions and grants, obtains the Diploma di Merito Accademia Musicale Chigiana and follows internationally renowned musicians, winning numerous national and international solo and chamber music competitions.

Principal solo clarinet of the FORM - Marche Philharmonic Orchestra from 1982, since the same year teaches clarinet in Conservatory and currently is the owner at the "G. Rossini" in Pesaro.

As a promoter of the Italian repertoire he recorded 10 CDs as principal artist for Naxos, Bongiovanni, Arcam – Cambridge and Mondomusica - EMI, achieving important critical acclaim and awards, broadening the clarinet discography with over forty new pieces, many of them in first world recording, that now become part of the general performance repertoire.

In the publishing field he supervises the Rare Italian Clarinet Music series for the publisher Eufonia realizing numerous reviews of important works, among which is the critical edition from the manuscript of the Variazioni in Do by G. Rossini.

Italian musician with an international reputation is present in Italy, Europe, USA and Japan, is regularly invited to the World Congress "ClarinetFest" organized by the International Clarinet Association (Atlanta, Austin, Los Angeles) and holds master classes on Italian repertoire in various institutions including Vienna University of music and the Real Conservatorio Superior de Madrid.

New releases on CD Naxos: "Italian clarinet Gems," 14 unpublished pieces by Italian composers of the early 1900s (November 2011) and "Aurelio Magnani Virtuoso clarinet music", containing the complete works for clarinet and piano (October 2012).

Discography

Italian Clarinet Gems

Italian Clarinet Suites

Italian Clarinet Sonatas

Aurelio Magnani Virtuoso clarinet music

Ernesto Cavallini Virtuoso clarinet music

Hommage a Rossini

Recital for clarinet and piano

Music from the last Century

K. Reinecke chamber music

Christmas...and more!

Sergio Bosi - An Italian portrait

Sergio Bosi

www.sergiobosi.it - mail@sergiobosi.it